I am very pleased with the progress evidenced through a number of ASU releases over the past 18 months that provide viable and pragmatic GAAP alternatives to qualifying reporting entities. I am also encouraged that the PCC influence appears to be having some impact on FASB’s deliberations on broader development of GAAP.

Please continue to support and fund the PCC initiative.

David James